11 VARIATIONS AND ADJUSTMENTSVariations*1. Owner's Right to Vary and Contractor's Proposal to Vary

1.1 The Owner may at any time during performance of the Contractor's obligations under this Contract request and subsequently order in accordance with the procedures set forth in this Clause, a Variation.

1.2 The Contractor may at any time during the performance of the Contractor's obligations under the Contract propose to the Owner any Variation which the Contractor considers necessary or desirable to improve the quality, efficiency or safety of the Services. The Owner may at its discretion approve or reject any Variation proposed by the Contractor.

1.3 The Contractor shall not affect any Variation without any written instruction from the Owner, except in accordance with a Variation Order from the Owner which the Contractor shall be obliged to comply with.

1.4 The Contractor acknowledges that no Variation ordered pursuant to a Variation Order will invalidate the Contract.

2. Prior to Variation Order Procedure

2.1 Prior to any Variation Order being issued under this article 22.1, the Owner and/or the Contractor, as applicable shall notify the other Party of the nature and form of the proposed Variation.

2.2 Within five (5) Business Days or such other period as the Parties may agree after having received the notice pursuant to this Clause, the Contractor shall submit to the Owner, a proposal covering all the details for providing such services.

2.3 Any other information which the Owner may reasonably request.

3. Issuance of Variation Order

3.1 If the Owner decides that the proposed Variation shall be carried out, it will issue a Variation Order in writing in accordance with the Contractor's submission or as modified by the Owner.

4. Notwithstanding a dispute regarding the amount of any increase or decrease of the Contract Price with respect to a Variation, or the impact of such Variation on the scope of Services, or any other terms and conditions of this Contract, the Contractor shall proceed with the performance of such Variation promptly following the issuance of a Variation Order by the Owner. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the Parties cannot agree upon the need for a Variation or the impact of a Variation on any matter that materially affects the Contractor's performance of the works, such Contract shall be resolved as provided in Dispute Resolution Procedure and during the pendency of such resolution the Contractor shall proceed as directed by the Owner.

No amendments, supplements, modifications or waivers of this ORDER shall be valid unless evidenced in writing and signed by authorized representatives of the Owner and the Contractor.

12 FORCE MAJEURE

Terms and Conditions :Force Majeure

If either party to the Purchase Order becomes unable to perform all or any part of its obligations under this Purchase Order because of an event of force majeure (such party, the "Affected Party"), the Affected Party shall be permitted a delay in the performance of such obligations affected by the event of force majeure. The Affected Party shall not be relieved of the performance of that part of its obligations hereunder which is not adversely affected.

An "Event of Force Majeure" means any event or circumstance or combination of events and circumstances which are affecting Site, including but not limited to those stated below that adversely affects and wholly or partly prevents or unavoidably delays an Affected Contractor in the performance of its obligations under this Contract, but only if and to the extent that such events or circumstances are not within the reasonable control, directly or indirectly, of the Affected Contractor and could not have been avoided if the Affected Contractor had taken reasonable care or acted as a Reasonable and Prudent Contractor.

Natural Force Majeure Events

Act of God, including lightning, drought, flood, fire and explosion (in relation to the Contractor to the extent originating from a source external to the Facility), Pandemic (both manmade and natural) earthquake, volcanic eruption, landslide, flood, cyclone, typhoon, tornado, or exceptionally adverse weather conditions.

Indirect Non-Natural Force Majeure Events

Any act of war (whether declared or undeclared), invasion, armed conflict or act of foreign enemy, blockade, embargo, revolution, riot, insurrection, terrorist or military action, radio-active contamination or ionizing radiation originating from a source in India or resulting from another Event of Force Majeure excluding circumstances where the source or cause of contamination or radiation is brought or has been brought into or near the Site by the Affected Contractor or those employed or engaged by the Affected Contractor, industry wide legal strikes and labor disturbances having a nationwide impact in India (rather than motivated primarily by a desire to improve compensation or working conditions of those involved).

Provided, however, that for the avoidance of doubt, lack of funds or economic hardship, late delivery of any spares or equipment caused by suppliers, non-availability/shortage of skilled/unskilled manpower or by inefficiencies on the part of the Contractor or any of its Subcontractors shall not be construed as an event of Force Majeure.

A Parties affected by an Event of Force Majeure ("Affected Contractor") shall give notice to the other Contractor of any Event of Force Majeure as soon as reasonably practicable, but not later than five (5) Business Days after the date on which such Contractor knew or should reasonably have known of the commencement of the Event of Force Majeure. Such notice shall include full particulars of the Event of Force Majeure, its effects on the Contractor claiming relief and the remedial measures proposed. The Affected Party shall give the other Party regular (and not less than weekly) reports on the progress of those remedial measures and such other information as the other Party may reasonably request about the situation. The Affected Party shall give notice to the other Party of the cessation (i) of the relevant Event of Force Majeure, and (ii) of the effects of such Event of Force Majeure on the performance of its rights or obligations under this Contract, as soon as practicable after becoming aware of each such cessation.

Neither Party shall be in default or shall be liable for any loss or damage due to delay in or prevention of the performance of its obligations under this Contract, if such delay or prevention is a direct result from the Force Majeure Event and only to the extent the performance of Services are delayed or prevented by the Force Majeure Event.

The Owner may extend the Term of this Contract on day to day basis for the period affected by the Force Majeure Event. For avoidance of doubt, no payment shall be made to the Contractor for the portion of the Services affected by the Force Majeure Events. The Contractor shall be only entitled for reasonable extension of time in case of Force Majeure Event and Owner shall not be liable for any cost or compensation.

W.O. No : 5200080297

Date : 08.10.2024

Amendment No :

Terms and Conditions :

In an Event of Force Majeure occurs which results in either Contractor, incurring additional costs as a result of such occurrence (including resulting from any delay or interruption in performance of its obligations hereunder or compliance with its obligations in respect of such event), such costs shall not be recoverable from the other Contractor.

Upon the occurrence of any Event of Force Majeure the Contractor shall continue to perform their obligations under this Contract to the extent not prevented by the Event of Force Majeure.

The Parties shall make all reasonable efforts (including incurring costs) to prevent and reduce to a minimum and mitigate the effect of any delay and damages occasioned by any Event of Force Majeure including recourse to alternate acceptable source of services, expenditure of reasonable sums of money, cooperate with the other party to develop and implement a plan of remedial and reasonable alternative measures to remove the Event of Force Majeure and shall use their reasonable efforts to resume normal performance of this Contract after the occurrence of any Event of Force Majeure and to the extent reasonably practicable shall perform their obligations.

SUPPLIER CODE OF CONDUCT ON ESG

This Supplier Code of Conduct on ESG (#ESG Code#) has been formulated by GMR Group (#GMR#) based upon the policy followed by GMR Group (GMR) in implementing the ESG standards in its regular business(es) and business practices that GMR follows. GMR Group values the relationship that it shares with all its Vendors/ Suppliers/ Contractors/ Subcontractors/ Service providers/ Consultants (#Suppliers#)* and believes in dealing with them in a fair and transparent manner. Similarly, GMR expects its Suppliers to comply with the terms set forth herein and also to ensure that there is transparency in their dealings in all of their activities including sourcing principles, labour related compliances, protection of human rights, complying with environmental requirements, ensuring legal and regulatory compliances as applicable

GMR Group has established an ESG committee that is mandated to review the Environmental, Social and Governance policies of the Group including the review and rating of the compliances of Suppliers, through respective subcommittees on quarterly basis. The ESG policy implementation, further improvements and appropriate communication to the stake holders will be managed by the ESG Committee.

Accordingly the ESG committee represented through a nodal officer may seek details of compliances, defaults and improvements on ESG aspects followed by the Suppliers and reserves right to suggest improvements and take appropriate action to protect interests of GMR Group companies vis-à-vis implementation of ESG policy in GMR Group.

GMR Group encourages the Suppliers that comply with the initiatives mentioned in this ESG Code. Further GMR Group reserves right to disassociate themselves through appropriate contractual process with the Suppliers that defaults in these aspects and in any case the PO/ WO issued by any of the GMR Group companies, will be liable to be terminated should there be any adverse remark OR penalty OR action on the Suppliers that could potentially dilute the reputation of GMR Group in their endeavor to comply with ESG requirements.

All our Suppliers are expected to comply with these requirements and further communicate it to their suppliers regarding the requirements of GMR ESG Code of Conduct. The performance of the Suppliers will be reviewed by the Procurement team and by the respective user department on ESG criteria also, as part of Vendor evaluation process.

All the suppliers are encouraged to have ESG Committee and report on the ESG parameters following global reporting standards & SEBI guidelines. The compliance of the appropriate ESG requirements will be monitored by GMR for Suppliers from time to time and Suppliers with lower rating/ compliance levels, may NOT be considered for future business with GMR.

1. Environmental Requirements:

a. Compliance with environmental regulations and standards.

It is mandatory for the Suppliers to be aware of and to adhere to the applicable laws, regulations and Standards pertaining to the Supplier's activities, for the entire scope of work. The Suppliers are engaged by GMR only on the assurance of the Supplier on these aspects and in case of noncompliance, GMR reserves right to take required action under the provisions of contract.

b. Climate Action:

GMR Group is committed towards developing a climate resilient future by adopting relevant mitigation and adaptation measures. Our climate actions will include

All the services being provided by the Suppliers' employees/workers must be voluntary and the employees/workers shall be free to leave the work or terminate the employment with reasonable notice. Suppliers shall further ensure that, contracts for both direct and contract workers clearly convey the conditions of employment in a language understood by the employees/workers of the Suppliers. Where Suppliers shall be responsible for payment of all fees and expenses, the Suppliers shall make the required payment to their employees/workers.

iii. Fair Treatment

Suppliers shall provide a workplace free from hard inhuman treatment, or even the threat of any such treatment, any sexual harassment, sexual abuse, corporal punishment or other enforcement measures that compromise the individual's physical or mental integrity. Suppliers shall not threaten their employees/workers with or subject them to harsh or inhumane treatment, including sexual harassment, sexual abuse, corporal punishment, mental coercion, physical coercion, verbal abuse, or unreasonable restrictions on entering or exiting company-provided facilities.

iv. Anti-discrimination

Suppliers shall provide their employees/ workers with a workplace free from harassment and/or deliberate discrimination or exclusion of preference made particularly on the basis of race, national origin, skin colour, language, religion, caste, political affiliations, gender, gender identity, sexual orientation, marital status, age, disability, pregnancy and related medical conditions, military or veteran status, or on any other basis prohibited by the applicable law.

v. Minimum Wages & Other Employee Benefits

Suppliers must pay the minimum salaries and employment benefits that are at least equal to the normal local salary or in compliance with minimum wages required by the applicable laws and regulations and provide all legally mandated benefits and satisfy all applicable employment laws.

3. Governance requirements:a. Data security and Governance:

All our Suppliers shall comply towards the requirements pertaining to data security and confidentiality of the data shared by GMR as part of business requirements. The Supplier indemnifies GMR or their associates from any or all implications due to such data breach with the Supplier. The Suppliers shall follow the policy as mentioned in GMR Ethics and Integrity Code.

b. Tax related compliances:

The Suppliers SHALL comply with ALL the Tax related requirements including but not limited to GST, Income Tax, Royalty, cess, surcharge and/ or any other tax/ duty as applicable for the work/ services that are being taken up.

c. Transparency in business transaction/ Accounting:

The Suppliers are expected to be transparent in their book keeping/ accounting process and shall be willing to share the ledgers/ tax compliances and payments details with GMR on as and when required basis.

d. Bribery and Corruption:

GMR would never offer either directly or indirectly or in any other form, a gift or entertainment or anything of value to any government official or commercial partners including customers or their representatives to influence decisions in favour of GMR OR secure/ retain business OR to get any unfair advantage. GMR neither involve themselves in payment of bribe, kickbacks nor allow their Suppliers OR third parties acting on behalf of GMR to involve in such activities. GMR Group has whistle-blower policy (https://investor.gmrinfra.com/pdf/GMR_Policy_Whistle_Blower.pdf), the Supplier may follow as required.

e. Conflict of Interest:

It is essential for the Suppliers to identify the possibilities, prevent wherever possible and manage the potential conflicts of interest. GMR expects the Suppliers to continually review and avoid potential conflicts of interest on behalf of GMR or their Clients. It is mandatory requirement for Suppliers to check and declare potential conflict of interest on any activity, interest or relationship that could give rise to conflict of interest. Suppliers hereby indemnify GMR or their Clients from any or all issues pertaining to conflict of interest, if the issue is not notified to GMR before entering in to Contract.

If Supplier fails to timely pay any unchallenged Warranty Costs, GMR Entity will be entitled to offset any of its liabilities to Supplier by the amount of such unchallenged Warranty Costs. Supplier and GMR Entity agree to use their best efforts to promptly resolve all Challenged Claims and, when resolved, Supplier will immediately reimburse GMR Entity for the agreed upon amount. Supplier and GMR Entity each acknowledge the benefit of reducing Warranty Costs and agree to jointly investigate, analyse and develop strategies that will result in the reduction of Warranty Costs.

9 VARIATIONS AND ADJUSTMENTS

Variations

1. Owner#s Right to Vary and Contractor#s Proposal to Vary

1.1 The Owner may at any time during performance of the Contractor#s obligations under this Contract request and subsequently order in accordance with the procedures set forth in this Clause, a Variation.

1.2 The Contractor may at any time during the performance of the Contractor#s obligations under the Contract propose to the

Terms and Conditions :

Owner any Variation which the Contractor considers necessary or desirable to improve the quality, efficiency or safety of the Services. The Owner may at its discretion approve or reject any Variation proposed by the Contractor.

1.3 The Contractor shall not affect any Variation without any written instruction from the Owner, except in accordance with a Variation Order from the Owner which the Contractor shall be obliged to comply with.

1.4 The Contractor acknowledges that no Variation ordered pursuant to a Variation Order will invalidate the Contract.

2. Prior to Variation Order Procedure

2.1 Prior to any Variation Order being issued under this article 22.1, the Owner and/or the Contractor, as applicable shall notify the other Party of the nature and form of the proposed Variation.

2.2 Within five (5) Business Days or such other period as the Parties may agree after having received the notice pursuant to this Clause, the Contractor shall submit to the Owner, a proposal covering all the details for providing such services.

2.3 Any other information which the Owner may reasonably request.

3. Issuance of Variation Order

3.1 If the Owner decides that the proposed Variation shall be carried out, it will issue a Variation Order in writing in accordance with the Contractor's submission or as modified by the Owner.

4. Notwithstanding a dispute regarding the amount of any increase or decrease of the Contract Price with respect to a Variation, or the impact of such Variation on the scope of Services, or any other terms and conditions of this Contract, the Contractor shall proceed with the performance of such Variation promptly following the issuance of a Variation Order by the Owner. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the Parties cannot agree upon the need for a Variation or the impact of a Variation on any matter that materially affects the Contractor's performance of the works, such Contract shall be resolved as provided in Dispute Resolution Procedure and during the pendency of such resolution the Contractor shall proceed as directed by the Owner.

No amendments, supplements, modifications or waivers of this ORDER shall be valid unless evidenced in writing and signed by authorized representatives of the Owner and the Contractor.

10 FORCE MAJEURE

Force Majeure

If either party to the Purchase Order becomes unable to perform all or any part of its obligations under this Purchase Order because of an event of force majeure (such party, the "Affected Party"), the Affected Party shall be permitted a delay in the performance of such obligations affected by the event of force majeure. The Affected Party shall not be relieved of the performance of that part of its obligations hereunder which is not adversely affected.

An "Event of Force Majeure" means any event or circumstance or combination of events and circumstances which are affecting Site, including but not limited to those stated below that adversely affects and wholly or partly prevents or unavoidably delays an Affected Contractor in the performance of its obligations under this Contract, but only if and to the extent that such events or circumstances are not within the reasonable control, directly or indirectly, of the Affected Contractor and could not have been avoided if the Affected Contractor had taken reasonable care or acted as a Reasonable and Prudent Contractor.

Natural Force Majeure Events

Act of God, including lightning, drought, flood, fire and explosion (in relation to the Contractor to the extent originating from a source external to the Facility), Pandemic (both manmade and natural) earthquake, volcanic eruption, landslide, flood, cyclone, typhoon, tornado, or exceptionally adverse weather conditions.

Indirect Non-Natural Force Majeure Events

Any act of war (whether declared or undeclared), invasion, armed conflict or act of foreign enemy, blockade, embargo,

Terms and Conditions :

revolution, riot, insurrection, terrorist or military action, radio-active contamination or ionizing radiation originating from a source in India or resulting from another Event of Force Majeure excluding circumstances where the source or cause of contamination or radiation is brought or has been brought into or near the Site by the Affected Contractor or those employed or engaged by the Affected Contractor, industry wide legal strikes and labor disturbances having a nationwide impact in India (rather than motivated primarily by a desire to improve compensation or working conditions of those involved).

Provided, however, that for the avoidance of doubt, lack of funds or economic hardship, late delivery of any spares or equipment caused by suppliers, non-availability/shortage of skilled/unskilled manpower or by inefficiencies on the part of the Contractor or any of its Subcontractors shall not be construed as an event of Force Majeure.

A Parties affected by an Event of Force Majeure ("Affected Contractor") shall give notice to the other Contractor of any Event of Force Majeure as soon as reasonably practicable, but not later than five (5) Business Days after the date on which such Contractor knew or should reasonably have known of the commencement of the Event of Force Majeure. Such notice shall include full particulars of the Event of Force Majeure, its effects on the Contractor claiming relief and the remedial measures proposed. The Affected Party shall give the other Party regular (and not less than weekly) reports on the progress of those remedial measures and such other information as the other Party may reasonably request about the situation. The Affected Party shall give notice to the other Party of the cessation (i) of the relevant Event of Force Majeure, and (ii) of the effects of such Event of Force Majeure on the performance of its rights or obligations under this Contract, as soon as practicable after becoming aware of each such cessation.

Neither Party shall be in default or shall be liable for any loss or damage due to delay in or prevention of the performance of its obligations under this Contract, if such delay or prevention is a direct result from the Force Majeure Event and only to the extent the performance of Services are delayed or prevented by the Force Majeure Event.

The Owner may extend the Term of this Contract on day to day basis for the period affected by the Force Majeure Event. For avoidance of doubt, no payment shall be made to the Contractor for the portion of the Services affected by the Force Majeure Events. The Contractor shall be only entitled for reasonable extension of time in case of Force Majeure Event and Owner shall not be liable for any cost or compensation.

In an Event of Force Majeure occurs which results in either Contractor, incurring additional costs as a result of such occurrence (including resulting from any delay or interruption in performance of its obligations hereunder or compliance with its obligations in respect of such event), such costs shall not be recoverable from the other Contractor.

Upon the occurrence of any Event of Force Majeure the Contractor shall continue to perform their obligations under this Contract to the extent not prevented by the Event of Force Majeure.

The Parties shall make all reasonable efforts (including incurring costs) to prevent and reduce to a minimum and mitigate the effect of any delay and damages occasioned by any Event of Force Majeure including recourse to alternate acceptable source of services, expenditure of reasonable sums of money, cooperate with the other party to develop and implement a plan of remedial and reasonable alternative measures to remove the Event of Force Majeure and shall use their reasonable efforts to resume normal performance of this Contract after the occurrence of any Event of Force Majeure and to the extent reasonably practicable shall perform their obligations.

SUPPLIER CODE OF CONDUCT ON ESG

This Supplier Code of Conduct on ESG ("ESG Code") has been formulated by GMR Group ("GMR") based upon the policy followed by GMR Group (GMR) in implementing the ESG standards in its regular business(es) and business practices that GMR follows. GMR Group values the relationship that it shares with all its Vendors/ Suppliers/ Contractors/ Subcontractors/ Service providers/ Consultants ("Suppliers")* and believes in dealing with them in a fair and transparent manner. Similarly, GMR expects its Suppliers to comply with the terms set forth herein and also to ensure that there is transparency in their dealings in all of their activities including sourcing principles, labour related compliances, protection of human rights, complying with environmental requirements, ensuring legal and regulatory compliances as applicable

GMR Group has established an ESG committee that is mandated to review the Environmental, Social and Governance policies of the Group including the review and rating of the compliances of Suppliers, through respective subcommittees on quarterly basis. The ESG policy implementation, further improvements and appropriate communication to the stake holders will be managed by the ESG Committee.

Accordingly the ESG committee represented through a nodal officer may seek details of compliances, defaults and improvements on ESG aspects followed by the Suppliers and reserves right to suggest improvements and take appropriate action to protect interests of GMR Group companies vis-à-vis implementation of ESG policy in GMR Group.

GMR Group encourages the Suppliers that comply with the initiatives mentioned in this ESG Code. Further GMR Group reserves right to disassociate themselves through appropriate contractual process with the Suppliers that defaults in these aspects and in any case the PO/ WO issued by any of the GMR Group companies, will be liable to be terminated should there be any adverse remark OR penalty OR action on the Suppliers that could potentially dilute the reputation of GMR Group in their endeavor to comply with ESG requirements.

All our Suppliers are expected to comply with these requirements and further communicate it to their suppliers regarding the requirements of GMR ESG Code of Conduct. The performance of the Suppliers will be reviewed by the Procurement team and by the respective user department on ESG criteria also, as part of Vendor evaluation process.

All the suppliers are encouraged to have ESG Committee and report on the ESG parameters following global reporting standards & SEBI guidelines. The compliance of the appropriate ESG requirements will be monitored by GMR for Suppliers from time to time and Suppliers with lower rating/ compliance levels, may NOT be considered for future business with GMR.

1. Environmental Requirements:

a. Compliance with environmental regulations and standards.

It is mandatory for the Suppliers to be aware of and to adhere to the applicable laws, regulations and Standards pertaining to the Supplier's activities, for the entire scope of work. The Suppliers are engaged by GMR only on the assurance of the Supplier on these aspects and in case of noncompliance, GMR reserves right to take required action under the provisions of

b. Climate Action:

GMR Group is committed towards developing a climate resilient future by adopting relevant mitigation and adaptation measures. Our climate actions will include

- 1) Evaluate, identify and address any climate related risk
- 2) Planning resource efficient designs and constructions taking account of Green Building concept
- 3) Use of energy efficient technologies and processes
- 4) Use of Renewable Energy wherever feasible
- 5) Adopt GHG Management System and work towards achieving carbon neutrality.
- 6) Adopt effective Air Quality Management and pollution prevention methods.

We expect our Suppliers/ Associates to comply with these requirements and our Suppliers will be rated based on their commitments and initiatives taken towards climate action.

c. Reduction of Waste:

GMR Group is committed to use materials (wherever feasible and permissible) that are Environmental friendly, energy efficient, locally available and the items that can be recycled to the extent permitted in the respective Contracts.

We expect our Suppliers to comply to these requirements on reduction in generation of waste of any kind and our Suppliers will be rated based on their commitment and initiatives taken towards waste reduction and management.

d. Preservation of biodiversity:

All the Suppliers shall demonstrate commitment towards protection of biodiversity. GMR encourages Suppliers to support biodiversity and to commit to the protection of environment.

e. Commitment to responsible water management:

Any activity of the business either with GMR or otherwise should not contribute to water pollution. GMR encourages Suppliers to support to implement water management initiatives aiming for efficient usage of water and in preserving water sources through rainwater harvesting/storage and use of efficient fixtures & fittings.

f. Management Systems:

All the Suppliers shall have policy on Environment, Quality & Safety in line with ISO Systems (9001, 14001 & 45001). The Management System developed to address Environment; Quality & Safety shall be certified by a reputed third party agency. The supplier should have effective emergency response program for their activities ensuring safety and regulatory requirements.

2. Social requirements:

a. Statutory Compliances:

All our Suppliers shall comply towards the requirements pertaining to human rights and labour practices. We will continue to ensure implementation of prevailing statutory compliances in all our projects and it is essential that our Suppliers comply with all the regulatory and statutory requirements without any deviation.

GMR implements ZERO tolerance on such requirements and the PO/ Contracts will be terminated at the cost and risk of Suppliers if any such instance of statutory non-compliances are noticed by GMR either in GMR's Contracts or any other Contracts in which vendor is a party.

b. Safety & Health Practises:

The Suppliers are expected to keep up BEST of the Safety & Health practises and any reportable incident or non-compliance will be dealt with the provisions of the Contract/ PO.
