GMRIT conducts regular skilling programmes in collaboration with GMRVF with an objective of providing gainful employment to unemployed rural youth through skill trainings and entrepreneurship development Programs. In Srikakulam district, in addition to Nagavali Institute of Rural Entrepreneurship Development (NIREED - a joint collaboration with Union Bank of India) at Rajam, 3 more institutes - Jarjangi Institute of Rural Entrepreneurship Development (JIRED) at Jarjangi, Girijana Institute of Rural Entrepreneurship Development (GIRED) for tribal youth at Addakulaguda and GMR Varalakshmi Training Center (GMRV TC) at Rajam were established and are run by the Foundation on its own. These VTCs focus on training unemployed youth in a variety of skills like electrical, refrigeration and air-conditioning, two-wheeler repairs, home nursing, computer operations, industrial and domestic tailoring, etc. In addition to the above-mentioned Vocational Training Centers, GMRVF has set up one more vocational training center i.e. GMR Varalakshmi Center for Empowerment and Livelihoods (GMRV CEL) at Vizianagaram town for the unemployed youth of Vizianagaram District.
